

2-Amendment to Article V(1) - Election of Officers and Directors

Original text	The officers shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and a Director. The officers shall be elected at the annual meeting of the association for a term of one year commencing on the first day of January following the election. Effective 2/21/2011 the officers will consist of a President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and four (4) Directors. One of the Directors will be the immediate past President, if there is no immediate past President or they are unable to serve then the fourth Director position is open to election.
New text	The officers shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and a Director. The officers shall be elected at the annual meeting of the association for a term of one year commencing on the first day of January following the election. Effective 2/21/2011 the officers will consist of a President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and four (4) Directors. One of the Directors will be the immediate past President, if there is no immediate past President or they are unable to serve then the fourth Director position is open to election. The officers will consist of a President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and four (4) Directors. One of the Directors will be the immediate past President, if there is no immediate past President or they are unable to serve then the fourth Director position is open to election.
Purpose	To clean up the article to remove special language from the creation of the MNPPSA.
Offered by	John Levesque